SUNO Basketball releases 2009-2010 schedule

NEW ORLEANS, LA. – Southern University at New Orleans (SUNO) has released its 2009-2010 composite basketball schedule.

The Gulf Coast Athletic Conference (GCAC) season tips off on January 7, 2009 against Tougaloo College in The Castle. Other feature games in the Gulf Coast Athletic Conference (GCAC) include the usual in-town rivalries with Loyola (January 14th and February 4th), Xavier (January 16th and February 25th) and Dillard (January 25th and February 18th).

The Lady Knights are coached by Elston King who is going into his twelfth season as head coach with a career record of 150-101. Last season he finished 12-15 overall and 6-12 in the GCAC.

Dale Valdery will be entering his second season with SUNO, and has a career record of 237-161. Last season, the Knights finished 3-25 overall and 3-15 in the GCAC.

The Knights will travel to the University of New Orleans on November 19th, Nicholls State University on November 30th, McNeese State University on December 22nd and Northwestern State University on January 4th. The match-up against Northwestern State will be a doubleheader including the Knights and the Lady Knights.

The full composite schedule can be viewed on the SUNO Athletics page at <http://www.suno.edu/Athletics/>.
