SUNO's Family Wellness Fair to take place Wednesday, April 22nd

NEW ORLEANS, LA – Southern University at New Orleans (SUNO) will hold its 3rd Annual Family Wellness Fair on Wednesday, April 22, 2009 from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. on the Lake Campus at 6801 Press Drive. The event is free and open to the public.

The fair will feature free screenings for the public. The screenings include: HIV/AIDS, cholesterol, diabetes, blood pressure, vision and stress. The event will also feature music, free food, face painting and door prizes.

“The SUNO Family Wellness Fair is an event designed to offer tools to assist with establishing and maintaining physical, emotional and spiritual wellness within a community that is still coping with the demands of recovery,” says Corrine Shelton, event organizer.

The SUNO Family Wellness Fair is sponsored by the Lyceum committee. Vendors include: CHAPS-Children’s Health and Preventive Services; Crescent House-Women’s Shelter; La CHIP/Healthy Start-La. Children’s Health Insurance Program; EXCELth Mobile Health Unit; Louisiana Spirit-Crisis Counseling; Wal-Mart Vision; New Orleans Council on Aging; Alcoholics Anonymous; Partnership for RX Access; Life Line Screening; Smoking Cessation; Tulane Cancer Center; Touro Diabetes Screening; Mom & Me; New Orleans Legal Assistance Center; and Walgreen’s Pharmacy.
